Thank you all for the sympathies and best wishes you've extended on the death of my Mom. It's wonderful and humbling all at the same time to get these from our "new" church family. The spirit is strong in this place and I'm grateful for that and for each one of you.

In Christ, Rod & Deb Schaffran

Thank You

Pastor Debra, thanks from all of us at Dala Historical Society for letting us hold our Pea Soup and Swedish Pancake event at your church. The sign by Hwy. 65 looked great! Also thanks to you and Rod for joining us. It was really nice to meet both of you, and fun to hear we both had moved up here from Bloomington.

Thanks again, Jill, Co-Secretary of DHS

From Our Pastor

February, 2017

Have you ever wondered how sermon topics are chosen? Well I did too until it was my job to make these decisions. Pastors from many denominations use what is called the Revised Common Lectionary to determine their sermon topic. The Revised Common Lectionary is a three-year cycle of weekly scripture readings used by many of the mainline churches in Canada and the United States and the sermon topic theme is commonly taken from that week's scripture.

Many United Methodist Churches also use the Lectionary but no one dictates what must be preached nor when something should be the topic. The pastors and/or worship team have significant freedom in making this decision. At Mora and Ogilvie, we are currently using hymns to determine the sermon topic.

The United Methodist Hymnal, The Faith We Sing and the Praise Chorus Book, used by our churches, have wonderful hymns and praise music. The first Sunday of 2017 Val Prax presented a sermon for us using the hymn Another Year is Dawning for her inspiration. How appropriate to use this hymn to begin the year. Although I did not hear this sermon I did hear it was very good. Thanks Val.

The first Sunday in February we are talking about and learning from the hymn I Need Thee Every Hour. Oh, how I need God every hour! As I dig into the words to the song and the related scripture I am excited to see where God leads me in writing the sermon.

If you have a favorite hymn you would like to be the focus for a future sermon, please let me know. I have one Sunday yet to fill before we begin the season of Lent.

Your Sister in Christ,
Pastor Deb

You're Invited!

Senior citizens of Mora/Ogilvie UMC's are invited by our counterparts at Cambridge UMC (Common Ground) for a Valentine's lunch (Dutch treat) on Monday, February 20, at Kev's Depot on Railroad St., Mora.

The Cambridge Seniors have adopted the name VIPs. They have bonded in fellowship at two previous gatherings. This will be a bus trip to Mora for them. We have invited them to come to Mora UMC following the $5 lunch of choice of chicken strips and cole slaw or fish and chips, including beverage. They have asked Mary Smith to play her guitar and sing back at Mora UMC while we enjoy coffee and a cookie. They are invited to take a tour of our building and get to know our bunch.

We need to give a count to their leader Iona Oosterhuis by the 17th of Feb. Please call your reservation to Colleen at the church 679-2713 or Ruth Smith 679-3215. We hope to have a good welcoming turnout and some fun together, guys and gals.

Sunday Morning Coffee at Mora UMC!

For those who are new to our church, or if you have never attended our Sunday morning fellowship hour we want to invite you to join our coffee group in the dining room (45 minutes before church begins). It is so nice to touch base with so many old and new friends and share a cup of coffee. Please do join us!!

We are happy to note that things seem to be working out very well for those who have graciously agreed to take a turn serving our fellowship hour. Many thanks to you all!

The newsletter will always print the current month of servers plus the next months also. Again, if you can't serve on your designated Sunday, call anyone else in that month and trade Sundays with them and be sure to notify Colleen in the office, 320-679-2713.

If you have suggestions or questions please call Betty White at 679-2329.
